

Radio script - restaurateur

VO: If you're a small business, what does the Disability Discrimination Act mean for you?

SFX interior of a restaurant/bar – low conversation, chink of glasses.

Restaurateur: Where do I start, this restaurant's a listed building?

VO: It doesn't mean turning your business upside down, just making reasonable adjustments.

Restaurateur: I've got no room for wheelchair tables.

VO: Just make sure a few seats aren't fixed to the floor.

Restaurateur: Do I need special doors?

VO: You could make sure doors are easy to open, for people with arthritis.

Restaurateur: If someone can't hear I'm not asking waiters to shout.

VO: Maybe they could remember to speak clearly to someone who's lip reading.

VO: For further information, go to dwp.gov.uk The DDA. It's now the law. Think about it.